We collect, use and disclose personal information about you throughout our relationship so we can:

- establish your identity
- protect you and us from error and fraud
- understand your needs and eligibility for products and services
- recommend particular products and services to meet your needs
- provide ongoing service
- comply with legal and regulatory requirements

If we need your information for any other purpose, we will identify that purpose. We obtain most of your personal information directly from you and through the products and services you use. Some information may be obtained from other sources. For example, with your consent, we may verify some of the information you give us with your employer or your references. Generally, when we obtain information from someone other than you, such as a credit bureau, we record the source of that information.

We may review and analyze your applications, transactions and other personal information. We may do this to offer solutions that help meet your needs, and to develop new products and strategies to meet the needs of our clients. We may also do this to help us identify various types of risks such as credit, fraud, and money laundering.

We may monitor and record telephone calls

We may monitor and record telephone calls between you and our representatives to ensure accuracy, security, service quality and for training purposes.

Your information is collected, used or disclosed with your consent

When you apply for a product or service, we tell you about this policy and will obtain your consent. Depending on the product or service, this allows us to:

- check your employment
- obtain a credit report and exchange information with a credit bureau
- offer you other products and services
- send you information about products and services by means of direct marketing

- share your information in confidence within the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. (provided it is legally permitted)
- obtain your information from, or disclose your information to, others that we tell you about

If you have a product or service where ownership or liability is shared with others (for example, you have a joint account or you have a guarantor for your loan), we may share your information with them in connection with the product or service. Also, if you authorize us, we may provide your information to your lawyer, accountant, or others you've identified. Except as explained in "There are exceptions to obtaining consent" under this policy, we don't disclose information about you to anyone outside of the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. without your consent. Similarly, if we intend to use your information for a purpose we didn't tell you about previously, we will obtain your consent.

There are many ways we may obtain your consent

We may obtain your express consent in writing, through electronic means, or verbally. Alternatively, your consent may be implied through an action you've taken or when you continue to use a product or service after we've notified you of a change. In some cases, we are required by law to obtain your express consent, in which case we ensure that we do so.

Examples of express consent:

Written - You may sign an application that states "I agree to the Terms on the reverse."

Electronic - You may be asked to electronically acknowledge that you will be bound by legal terms or agree to certain statements. Clicking "I Agree" is your electronic consent.

Verbal - An IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. representative asks whether you agree to us obtaining your credit bureau information. Saying you agree is your verbal consent.

Common consents and your options

There are several common consents that may apply in your relationship with us. They are described below to help you understand when you can refuse or withdraw your consent and when this right is limited.

Refusing or withdrawing your consent will generally not affect your eligibility for IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. offers. However, if you refuse or withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide you with a particular product or service. We'll explain the impact on you at the time, to help you with your decision.

We share information within the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD.

We may share information about you within the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. for legal and regulatory purposes, to manage credit risk and other business risks, to perform analytics, and to ensure we have correct and up to date information about you, such as your current address, date of birth, etc. You may not withdraw consent for this sharing.

We may also share your information to better manage your total relationship with the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. and enable other members of the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. to bring suitable products and services to your attention. IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. will share your information within the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD. for these purposes unless prohibited by law or you tell us not to.

We ask for your consent before using your Social Insurance Number

We are required by tax law to ask for your Social Insurance Number (SIN) when you open a product that earns income.

When we receive information from or update your information with a credit bureau, your SIN is the best way to make sure that the information actually refers to you. Wrong information could lead us to draw wrong conclusions about you. You should be aware, though, that permitting us to use your SIN in this way is voluntary for you.

If you choose not to give us your SIN when its collection is optional, or tell us you do not want us to use it for credit bureau purposes, this by itself will not prevent you from getting any products or services.

To withdraw your consent:

When you withdraw your consent, we will update your file as quickly as possible. It may take some time for our records to reflect your choice as many records can only be changed during regular file updates and your choice may not be captured for a promotion already in progress.

Limiting the Collection, Use and Disclosure of Your Information

We limit the personal information we collect

While we collect various types of personal information from you and other sources, we limit the information to what is necessary for the purposes we've identified.

As well, we may need to ask new questions because of changes in legal and regulatory requirements.

We may also be required to ask for information on how you use our products or services. In addition, for certain types of investment products and services, we are required to collect information about your investment profile, including your objectives, risk tolerance and investment knowledge.

Financial information:

We require financial information to assess your eligibility for products and services. We also require it to ensure that the advice, products and services offered to you and the investments purchased by you (or by us on your behalf) are appropriate for you. Financial information may include account records, tax returns, financial statements, employment income and credit information.

Social Insurance Number:

We may be required to collect and disclose your SIN to comply with legal or regulatory requirements. Health information:

Health information is required to confirm you are eligible for some insurance products offered through certain members of the IMPERIAL WEALTH MANAGEMENT LTD.
